The goal of Fourth-year Arabic is to equip learners with skills needed to build a deep understanding of authentic Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) material, and review / practice advanced grammatical structures, expressions, idioms, and cultural competency. The course embraces a communicative approach to learning focusing on reading comprehension and oral communicative skills through interactive in-class discussions. We will be working on theme-based units covering a range of topics.