Arabic 111-2 is the second quarter of a three-quarter sequence of First-Year Arabic, which provides a thorough grounding for listening, speaking, reading, and writing Arabic. The course follows the integrated approach which blends the standard Arabic, Fuṣḥā, and the dialect or colloquial language, āmmiyya, in a way that reflects the authentic practice of native Arabic speakers. Students completing the three quarter sequence will have an overview of Arabic grammar; will have enough vocabulary to speak about themselves, family members, friends, studies, and trips; and will be able to read and comprehend basic authentic texts and write lengthier paragraphs with increased accuracy.

Prerequisite: Arabic 111-1, or instructor’s consent.
