CONVERSATION & CULTURE IN THE ARAB WORLD: LEVANTINE DIALECT

- August 1-26
- MTWThF 4:00PM-5:30PM
- Online
- Rana Raddawi, Instructor

This Levantine Arabic course is an in-depth introduction to conversation and culture in the Arab World with concentration on developing speaking and communication skills in spoken Levantine colloquial Arabic. Recognizing that students may have somewhat different backgrounds, the course aims to ensure that each student progresses in speaking and comprehension across the quarter relative to his/her initial level. The main objective of this course is to help students develop basic skills in the areas of listening and speaking in the Levantine Arabic. The skills they learn from this course will enable them to engage in simple yet useful conversations. The ability to understand and communicate will develop along with increased knowledge of the vocabulary and grammatical structures of the dialect.

Prerequisite: Arabic 111-2, or instructor's consent.
