

HEBREW 216-2

TOPICS IN HEBREW LIT: PARENTS & CHILDREN IN ISRAELI SOCIETY

Hanna Tzucker Seltzer, Instructor.

MW 2-3:20PM

This course explores the universal topic of relationships between parents and children as it is reflected in Israeli society. The topic will be examined through the lens of various genres, such as short stories, blogs, films, parental guides and TV shows, and creative writing. As we discuss the complexities and dilemmas of the relationships, we will pay close attention to the varied language levels and styles, grammar structures, and vocabulary.

This course fulfills a Literature & Fine Arts Distribution Requirement.

Winter 2023